AND WHAT NEXT? FUTURE
PROFESSIONAL PATHS FOR VOLUNTEERS

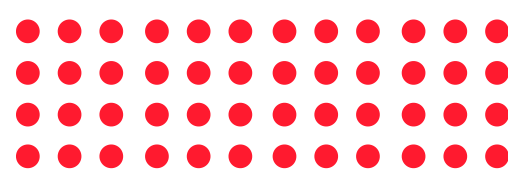

Piloting of the NFE activities & platform:

All partners tested the NFE activities of the Employment Guide with young people from their local communities who provided valuable feedback which help to improve the resources.

Multiplier events:

All partners promoted the project results - Employment Guide and Online Platform to young people (ex, current and future volunteers), as well as youth organisations, especially the ones accredited in European Solidarity Corps.

Project partners held their fourth transnational project meeting (TPM) on the 7th and 8th of September, in Malaga, Spain, marking the last period of this amazing project.

The first day of the TPM kicked off with a positive atmosphere as partners arrived at Arrabal Center. The agenda for the day included project management, quality evaluation, dissemination, and the implementation of the non-formal activities of the Project result 1 – the Employment Guide.

TPM 4

On the second day, the partners continued with renewed energy and focused on Project result 2, piloting feedback, platform promotion strategies, and sustainability. The discussions were fruitful, and the partners made significant progress in refining the project's objectives and strategies.
